Food For All Seasons

WITH WOODLANDS COMMUNITY GARDEN

AUTUMN PROGRAMME

Tuesday Tutorials 6pm

Free training with our resident gardener, Vicki Fleck
Taking place in the Community Garden 91-101 West Princes Street, Glasgow G4 9BY. Tuesday evenings from 6pm-dusk.

Tuesday September 11th HAPPY PLANT FAMILIIES
Understanding green manures and crop rotation

Tuesday September 18th HERBS FOR WINTER AND SEEDS FOR SPRING
Tips on freezing and drying herbs and saving seeds

Tuesday September 25th WONDERFUL WORLD OF WINDOW BOXES
What to grow now and how to go about growing it

Tuesday October 2nd CANNY CONTAINERS
Growing in containers, especially for those with limited space

Tuesday October 9th BUZZING BULBS
Bulbs and other beneficial plants for bees

No Need to book, just drop in

www.woodlandscommunitygarden.org.uk

Community Gardening Sessions

Come along to the garden to take part in some friendly communal gardening activity. It's our very own outdoor green gym and a great chance to meet new people. You will also be helping us look after the communal areas of the garden, with essential maintenance and to get the garden ready for winter.

Join us at the following times:

Until October 10th
Tuesdays 4pm - dusk
Wednesdays 4pm - dusk
Sundays 12-4pm

October 14th - November 18th
Tuesdays 3-5pm
Sundays from 10am-5pm

Seasonal Sundays

Happenings in the garden every Sunday from late September through to mid November.

Sunday 23rd September 12-4pm MURAL PAINTING WORKSHOP with Recoat Gallery. Bring old house-hold paint to recycle and help bring some autumn colour to the garden.

Sunday 30th September 1-2pm GARDEN MEETING Mulching over ideas and plotting for the future. Everyone welcome.

Sunday 30th September 2-4pm ART WORKSHOP with our artist in residence Alejandra Contreras

Weekend of 6-7 October INTRODUCTION TO PERMACULTURE with Lusi Alderslowe Permaculture is a holistic design system for sustainable living, creating systems for minimum effort and maximum effect. Advance booking required and fees apply to this special weekend course. Email Lusialderslowe@gmail.com or phone 07787376475 for more information.

Sunday 14th October 12-4pm LAND FOR ALL SEASONS ART SHOW
Culmination of our artist in residency

Sunday 21st October 1-3pm GET YOU GARDEN READY FOR WINTER including garden hygiene, tidying and pruning

Sunday 28 October 1-3pm LEAVES, LEAVES, GLORIOUS LEAVES
Collecting leaves and making a leaf-mould cage

Sunday 4th November 1-3pm PLANTING FOR WINTER
A guide to what can still be planted at this time of year

Sunday 11 November 2-4pm END OF GROWING YEAR REVIEW.
Special meeting to review our second full year of growing and plan for 2013. Open meeting, everyone welcome. (Likely to be held at a local indoor venue, check our website/facebook nearer the time for updates on meeting location)

PLUS COMING SOON

October - December : Vegetarian Cookery Classes

With local seasonal food and international menus, the return of our popular vegetarian cookery classes is sure to be popular. Email woodlandscommunitygarden@gmail.com if you would like to find out more information.

Woodlands Workspace

Find out the latest on our exciting plans for artist studios and affordable workspace at our new gap site at 127 West Princes Street. We will be circulating information in October with details of the likely designs and information on how you can help us in taking this project forward.

HELP US GROW

You can now become a friend of the community garden and help us sustain our future. You can download the form from our website or email woodlandscommunitygarden@gmail.com for more information

GET IN TOUCH

Email woodlandscommunitygarden@gmail.com
Tel 0141 332 9311

Food for All Seasons is funded by Awards for All and People's Postcode Trust Lottery. We are also grateful for funding from Scottish Communities Foundation towards our core costs and Glasgow City Council (Glasgow Life) towards our artist in residency.

AWARDS FOR ALL SCOTLAND
LOTTERY FUNDED

scottish community foundation

PEOPLE'S POSTCODE LOTTERY

www.woodlandscommunitygarden.org.uk